

where they will spend two months motoring. They will live at 31 East Seventy-ninth Street, Manhattan.

Mrs. Grace is the elder daughter of Charles B. MacDonald, one of the foremost amateur golfers in this country. Formerly he resided with his family in Chicago. In 1895 he won the first United States Golf Association championship, and later international golf honors in Canada.

The bridegroom was graduated from Columbia in 1894. He is an enthusiastic sportsman, rarely being missed from the fields of the Meadow Brook Hunt, and was instrumental in forming the Great Neck Polo Club, of which his other two brothers are members.

MISS RHEA CLEMENS WEDS.

Marriage to Richard Sheldon, Yale 1902, Takes Place at Millington, N. J.

The marriage of Miss Rhea Garfield Clemens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Clemens, to Richard Sheldon, was celebrated at noon yesterday. The Rev. H. H. Hadley officiated.

The wedding took place in the country house of the bride's parents at Millington, N. J. Only the families of the bride and bridegroom were present. The bride is the eldest of four sisters.

Mr. Sheldon was a well-known member of the Yale Class of 1902. He is color sergeant of the Seventh Regiment, N. G. N. Y., and is a noted college athlete. His sister was married a few years ago to Anthony Hope Hawkins, the English novelist.

MISS MACDONALD A BRIDE.

She Is Wedded to Joseph P. Grace at Westbury, L. I.

WESTBURY, L. I., Aug. 1.—A quiet but attractive home wedding was that this afternoon at Phoenix Lodge, Westbury, when Janet MacDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blair MacDonald of New York and Westbury, became the bride of Joseph P. Grace of Great Neck, son of Mrs. Grace and the late William R. Grace, twice Mayor of New York.

Miss Frances MacDonald, sister of the bride, was her only attendant, while William R. Grace, brother of the bridegroom, stood with him during the ceremony. The bride wore a gown of white embroidered chiffon. The rambling country house at Westbury was fragrant with white flowers, palms and Easter lilies being banked at the end of the drawing room where the ceremony took place. A solid aisle of Easter lilies extended down the length of the drawing room, along which the bridal party proceeded to Father Burke, who performed the ceremony. After the wedding a small reception was held for the friends and relatives gathered at the house. Mr. and Mrs. Grace will sail on Tuesday for Europe.